

Note: Students typically matriculate to their major department no later than their second semester of their sophomore year. A hold will be placed on a student record if a student remains undeclared following the first semester of their sophomore year. For the majors on campus that do not require an application for admissions, students may declare a major and be transferred to their department as early as their second semester of freshman year.